

NEW WORLD FINN BOOKSTORE

YOUR SOURCE FOR FINE BOOKS ABOUT FINNISH LIFE AND CULTURE

NWF BOOKS, PO BOX 432, CEDAR GROVE WI. 53013

New Offering

- The Winter War by Engle & Paananen. The Soviet Attack on Finland, 1939-1940. Paananen uses her expertise in military affairs: at age 15, Paananen joined the Home Guard in Tampere. Photographs. Jussi Aarnio cartoons. $19.95

Consider these books for your reading pleasure:

Two novels by Eeva Joenpelto, winner of the 1994 Finlandia Prize for literature. Depicting the characters through their actions and thoughts, Joenpelto draws pictures of strong people.

- Bride of Life Ritva Koivu, trans. Thrice married Sara Bliss spins her own story to herself and others as she works to achieve wealth and power, her definitions of success in life. $15
- Rich and Respected Margareta Martin, trans. Different philosophies of life create a power struggle for the control of a family business. Eero Kuula's sons-in-law think he is out of touch with modern life. $14

Cookbooks & Customs

- A Finnish Christmas Cookbook by Warriner & Krumsieg. New edition of traditional recipes. $14.95
- Finnish Cookbook, Beatrice Ojakangas. Finnish recipes adapted for American kitchens. Includes recipes for 14 different kinds of Finnish bread. $17.00
- Finnish Touches, Recipes and Traditions (Fantastically Finnish revised and expanded). $14.95
- Suomi Specialties: Finnish Celebrations, Recipes, & Traditions – Sinikka Garcia presents many Finnish holidays, customs, and celebrations. $12.95
- The Best of Finnish Cooking: Previdi. Authentic Finnish recipes adapted for the American kitchen. Main courses, soups, salads, appetizers, sandwiches, and desserts. $12.95.
- Laulupiiri (Singing Circle) with Accompaniments - by Anja Sell, $20

Translations by Richard Impola

- Juha - Considered Juhani Aho's finest. Drama of classic novel has inspired 4 films. Translated by Richard Impola. $19
- Winter War by Antti Tuuri. Narrative account of Finland's Winter War, 1939-40. Based upon diaries, stories told by veterans, and documents, all combined by Tuuri as a continued story of one man's experiences in order to re-create the war as it was lived by the men who took part in it. $20
- Seven Brothers - Finland's classic novel by Aleksis Kivi. Next to the Kalevala, the best-known work of Finnish literature. Used as assigned reading in a half dozen colleges and universities. $14.00
- Our Daily Bread - by Kalle Paatalo, Finland's most popular writer. The first novel in a series of five. Growing up in backwoods Finland during the depression. $20.00
- Before the Storm - by Kalle Paatalo. Life before the war. $15.00
- Storm Over The Land - by Kalle Paatalo. The families from Our Daily Bread during the trying years of WWII, on the home front and the battlefield. $15.00
- After the Storm - by Kalle Paatalo. Recovery and Reconstruction in Finland after WW II. The fourth book in a five-book series. $18.00
- Winter of the Black Snow - by Kalle Paatalo. Post-war problems arise in the rural areas of Finland as agricultural surpluses and unemployment increase. Last volume of the five-volume series. $18.00
- Under the North Star by Väinö Linna. Part 1 of Linna's classic trilogy, "Täällä Pohjantähden Alla." Depicts conditions in Finland 1884-1907, telling the story through the experiences of ordinary Finns in the rural village of Pentti's Comers. $19.95
- Under the North Star 2, The Uprising by Väinö Linna. Landless farmers' frustrations and the Civil War in Finland. $20.00
- Under the North Star 3: Reconciliation by Väinö Linna. Final volume of the trilogy, ending in the post war years of WWII. $20.00
- No Home for Us Here by Jukka Rislakki and Eila Lahti-Argutina. The mass annihilation of the Finnish Border-Hoppers in the Urals in 1938. $14.95
- Sisu Mother by Lempi Kähkönen-Wilson. A young Karelian girl's life is drastically changed as the family is evacuated twice during the wars, and she marries and raises her own family amidst many obstacles, including numerous moves to far away lands and a mentally ill husband. $14.95

Literature, Travel, Folklore, History

- Nordic Hero Tales from the Kalevala by James Baldwin; N.C. Wyeth, illustrator. Unabridged replication of the original published in 1912, The Sampo: Hero Adventures from the Finnish Kalevala $8.95
- The Nelson Brothers, by Allan Nelson; R & S Bartley, Editors. Two socialist brothers go in different directions trying to fulfill their philosophy, striving for workers' rights and equality. $24.00.
- Nikolai's Fortune, Solveig Torvik. Story of 3 generations of mothers and daughters who move from Finland, Lapland, and Norway, to the U.S. always in search of a better life. Part history, part memoir, and a heartrending description of the power of prejudice. $24.00.
- Guarding Passage by Beth Virtanen. Highly acclaimed book of poetry. $14.50
- St. Croix Avenue Fictional Duluth, Minnesota in its early years. Translated by Miriam Leino Eldridge $20
- A Matter of Courage Joann Hakala. This story, from Joann Hakala's point of view, tells about the persistence that their son Gerry needed during the long struggles for recuperation from a major accident - see review on page 13. $16.95

- Suomalaiset, People of the Marsh. Takes place in Northeastern MN, Northern MI, and Ontario during 1908-1918 and deals with the immigration of the Finns, WWI, labor history, and the tragic lynching of Olli Kinkkonen in Duluth (1918) $20.
- Fragments of Lappish Mythology – Lars Levi Laestadius, edited by Juha Pentikäinen, translated by Börje Vähämäki. Laestadius was a Sami pastor who wrote this work both as a history and a mythology. $20.00
- Nordic Immigration to North America - U. of Wisconsin - $8.00
- Forbidden Fruit & Other Stories -Juhani Aho is considered one of the masters of Finnish literature. His 19th century characters are forest-clearing pioneers and other rural people who often find themselves clashing with technology. $12.95
- Shavings Juhani Aho. A perceptive, intelligent story of a man born into a religious family in Savo. $10.00
- Blueberry God. Reino Hannula. Hannula said he thought about his “teen-age surrogate Ash Street Hall parents...they contributed to Gardner’s history. They contributed to its culture. How could I let these indomitable men and women drop into oblivion without some effort on my part?” $8.00 postpaid.
- Down from Basswood: Lynn Laitala has 24 different characters tell 27 interrelated stories. Although the stories occur in a specific place (Ely, Minnesota area), they are not unlike the stories of millions worldwide who were displaced for economic and political reasons during the twentieth century. $17.00
- The Legend of St. Urho. Asala. Finnish American folktales about St. Urho, including the story of how the legend began. $12.95
- Helmi Mavis: A Finnish American Girlhood by Mavis Hiltunen Biesanz. $12.95
- In Wartime Finland: Memories of a World War II Childhood. Hilja Nast, translated by Richard Impola. $9.95
- Red Moon over the White Sea by Laila Hietamies. $19.00.
- The Thirty Years’ War. Henrik Tikkanen. A soldier carries on WWII by himself, years after it officially ends. Tikkanen gives many nods to American culture and military. $9.00

Karelian Fever In US & Finland

- A Grave in Karelia: Komulainen. Based on the author’s experiences at a work camp in Russian Karelia in the early 1930’s, his escape and return to the U.S. $10.00
- Karelia: Hokkanen. Finnish American couple in Russia, 1934-41. A book you can’t put down to finish some other day! Their story was withheld for a long time because of fear. $12.95
- Karelian Exodus: Finnish Communities in North America and Karelia During the Depression Era. Documented and well researched articles. $22.00
- They Took My Father, Finnish Americans in Stalin’s Russia by Mayme Sevander and Laurie Hertzell New Printing. $16.50
- Of Soviet Bondage by Mayme Sevander $14.00

Children’s Books

- A Mother’s Story - Based on Lemminkainen story from the Kalevala. Written and beautifully illustrated by M.E.A. McNeil. Supported by a grant from the Finlandia Foundation. $23
- Tales From a Finnish Tupa - translated by Aili Kolehmainen. Traditional tales told through the generations. $10.00
- Magic Storysinger (H) stories from the Kalevala, winner of the Aesop Award from The American Folklore Society. Color illustrations.$16.95
- Mr. Boo - Written and illustrated by Hannu Mäkelä, translated by Anselm Hollo. Mr. Boo’s boundless imagination creates fascinating situations for him. $13.00
- Fish of Gold & Other Finnish Folk Tales. Magic. castles. beautiful daughters of kings. Young are heroes. $7.95

- Finland, a Book to Color $5.00

Genealogy

- A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Cemetery by Margaret Olson Webster. Stories of the “Finn Cemetery” founded by Finnish immigrants near Tamarack, Mn. $23.00

Language

- Mastering Finnish textbook - Börje Vähämäki $22.00
- Mastering Finnish CD $18.00
- Finnish-English, English-Finnish dictionary $14.00
- Aapinen – Suomi Synod approved $5.00
- A Practical Guide to Reading Finnish (revised 2nd ed.) by Aili

Send order form, and check or money order in US dollars to:
NWF BOOKS, PO BOX 432, CEDAR GROVE WI. 53013
 (Include address to ship the books to, your phone #, and your email address.)

Book or Video	#	Price	Total
Total of items ordered
Shipping and Handling: $3.00 for shipping one item; $5.00 for orders $25- $59.99; $8.00 for $60 +
Residents of Wisconsin add 5% sales tax
Total

The Kalevala
 Translated by Eino Friberg,
 Illustrated by Björn
 Landström $45.00